

Bring your class to Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore and the busing is free!

Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore, with the help of a grant from the National Park Foundation's Ticket to Ride Program, offers personalized snowshoe field trips for your students. The program, as a tie in to Every Kid in a Park, targets fourth grade classes and has the following goals:

- Students and teachers/group leaders will have an increased awareness of national parks and their potential for use in academic, service-learning, and/or healthy activities.
- Students and teachers/group leaders will engage in using national parks for the first time.
- Students and teachers/group leaders will return to the national parks in the future.
- Teachers/group leaders will enhance and expand their content knowledge and curriculum base, especially related to national parks.

Possible pre and post activities that you might explore with your students:

Pre Visit Activities

Snow Shoe History, Design, and Art
It's Cool to Stay Warm
Tricky Tracks 1
Glacial Impact on SBDNL

Post Visit Activities

Tricky Tracks 2
Super Survivor
Glaciers: Then, Now, & in the Future
Mission Ad Campaign

You can access these activities on our website: www.nps.gov/teachers/classrooms/snowshoe-hikes.htm

The park visit, including a ranger led hike, will be arranged on a first-come, first-served basis.

Simply fill out the application (www.nps.gov/teachers/classrooms/snowshoe-hikes.htm) before November 15 to make your reservation. After that date any open spots will be offered to additional grades.